PLAGIARISM AND COLLUSION

Plagiarism is 'a practice that involves the using of another person's intellectual output and presenting it as one's own'. This includes the presentation of work that has been copied, in whole or part, from other sources (including other students' work, published books or periodicals, or unpublished works or unauthorised collaboration with other persons), without due acknowledgement.

CONSEQUENCES OF PLAGIARISM AND COLLUSION

A student found guilty of plagiarism will be subject to one or all of the following:

Referral to Course Coordinator for: counseling; submission of additional work; the placing of a record of the alleged infringement on the student's file; issuing of a written warning; re- submission of work for assessment or the undertaking of another form of assessment such as an oral or unseen examination; allocation of a NYC grade to part or all of the assessment; allocation a NYC grade to the unit.

Referral of the matter to the Director of Education for: suspension from the course or other official disciplinary action.
